Frequently Asked Questions for “A Thousand Ways – Part 1: A Phone Call”

How does it work?

At the time of the event, you will call into a phone number. Another audience member will do the same. You will be met by a voice that will guide the performance.

Can I participate in this performance with another member of my household?

No, this ticket is for one person. The performance is created as an experience between you and the other person on the phone only. Members of the same household must have their own ticket and separate devices to join the event. It is recommended that members of the same household choose different times.

Where should I call from?

A quiet space in-doors in your current place of residence where you receive a good telephone signal.

What kind of phone do I need?

Any phone will work! All that matters is that it's charged, cordless, and ready to go.

Can I use headphones to take the call?

While you can use headphones for this experience, we recommend that you do not use ones with Bluetooth connection as it may get cut off during the call

I'm calling from another country, what should I do?

Please email us at sifa@artshouse.sg and we'll give you a local phone number. Kindly note that the international phone system we are using allows free international calls for countries listed at the bottom of this FAQ. (however local rates apply). As for countries outside of this list, you are still able to participate in this call, but international and local rates apply.

What else do I need to know?

The call will start promptly. Due to the intimate nature of this experience, we cannot accommodate late arrivals.
